New Addition Under Construction At Lawson Ford, Inc.

Mr. Dick Bland, on the right, Vice-President and General Manager at Lawson Ford, Inc., discusses the new addition now under construction at Lawson Ford with Dick Bass, left, and Ken Milton, right, of Clover Hill Manufacturing Company.

Clover Hill Manufacturing Company of Appomattox and H.S. Williams Company of Marion, Va. are contractors for the construction program of the new addition to the Service Department.

There will be 110 feet by 163 feet in the new addition, adding approximately 18,000 square feet to the present Service Department. When completed, the Service Department at Lawson Ford will include 25,000 square feet, making a total building size of 30,000 square feet. Mr. Bland feels that with the addition to the Service Department, they will be able to improve service rendered their customers by having a modern service department and the most modern in equipment.

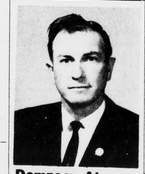
Steve Lamb, FFA representative to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri displays national awards won by the Appomattox FFA Chapter. On the right is the gold emblem for the Building Our American Communities program. On the left is the gold emblem for the National Chapter Awards program. Steve is chapter secretary for the Appomattox FFA Chapter and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Lamb of Route 1, Appomattox.



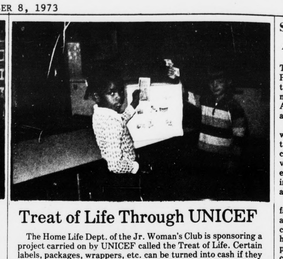
Dempsey, At Appomattox On November 10th

Mr. Willis A. Dempsey, Chaplain of Virginia Gideons, will be the guest speaker for the Annual Rally of the Appomattox Camp of Gideons. This Rally, to be held at the Parkway Restarant at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, November 10, 1973 will have a large number of area ministers and their wives as special guests.

In addition to the members of The Appomattox Camp, (which is responsible for the counties of Buckingham, Charlotte, and Appomattox), a good number of Lynchburg and Farmville Gideons are expected to be present. Naturally, the Gideons Auxiliary will be well represented since it is composed of the wives of Gideons.

The Gideons International is a Christian business and professional men's association numbering over 40,000 members in 97 countries around the world. The Association is engaged in a program of placing the Holy Bible in such public institutions as hotels and hospitals, and of presenting the New Testament to such groups as military personnel, students from the 5th through 12th grades inclusive, to college and university students, and to nurses. Over 13 million Bibles and Testaments have been placed and distributed worldwide by the Gideons and Auxiliary members since the beginning of the Scripture distribution program of The Gideons International in the year 1908. Last year the local camp distributed a total of over 1,200 Bibles and New Testaments. And, this fall and winter we have every reason to believe that our area needs will be 150 % of last year's placement, or approximately 1,800 Bibles and New Testaments.

Mr. Dempsey, who has been quite active in Virginia Gideon work for the past ten years is employed by the Virginia Electric and Power Company, and comes to us from the Fredericksburg area. President of the local Gideon Camp is Mr. David L. Martin who is associated with Barker-Jennings Hardware Co., Inc. of Lynchburg.. On Sunday, November 11th, members of the Gideons will speak in many Appomattox, Buckingham, and Charlotte county churches, telling these congregations of the work of the Association as well as some of the results. When asked why they engage in this work of distributing Bibles and New Testaments, Gideons invariably refer to the object of their Association as stated in their Constitution which records that, "The object of the Gideons is to win men and women for the Lord Jesus Christ."



Treat of Life Through UNICEF

The Home Life Dept. of the Jr. Woman's Club is sponsoring a project carried on by UNICEF called the Treat of Life. Certain labels, packages, wrappers, etc. can be turned into cash if they are turned in at boxes located at either Kings or Wilbuns Store. There is also a box at the Primary School. The money helps provide school supplies, vitamins, and vaccines for children in 111 developing countries. The participating projects are: Kool Aid, (any empty package; Dentyne or Trident (outer pack wrappers from any flavors); Royal Desserts, (front panel); Chocks, Chock Bugs Bunny or Flintstones, front panel from box); Welch's label from large jelly, jam or perserves; Blue Bonnet Margarine (lg. picture of Blue Bonnet Sue from any package.

These labels must be turned in by Nov. 28. Deposoit at either store. You'll feel a lot better for helping and it won't cost you a cent.

Community Action Awards Presented

KANSAS CITY, MO., October-(Special)-Ninety-one FFA chapters were recognized at the National FFA Convention for outstanding efforts to make their communities better places in which to live and work. The awards were presented by the National FFA Foundation to recognize chapter participation in the FFA Building Our American Communities (BOAC) program. Thirty-three chapters with the most comprehensive community action programs were presented the National Gold Emblem Award. Fifty-eight other FFA chapters received National Silver and Bronze Awards for their efforts in community development. One of the thirty-three National Gold Emblem chapters was selected during the Thursday morning session of the 46th National Future Farmers of America Convention which was held in Kansas City, Missouri, October 16-19.

A committee of five persons from education and government met in Washington, D. C., late in August to select the top BOAC activity from each of the four FFA administrative regions. The four winners were selected among the thirty-three National Gold Emblem The four chapter selected compete for the National Citation were: Bloomer Chapter, Bloomer, Wisconsin; Hamilton FFA Chapter, Hamilton, New York; Richfield Chapter, Richfield, Utah; and Campbell FFA Chapter, Naruna, Virginia.

Semi-Annual Meeting At Boys' Plantation

The Board of Directors of Trustees of Patrick Henry Plantation met at the Plantation for their semi-annual meeting on Sunday. Mr. Andrews, President, presided and gave the invocation.

Plans for the new year were discussed and it is hoped that a contract for construction can be let in the very near future. The Board expressed a feeling of urgency in getting the work started at the earliest possible date.

This cottage will provide facilities for 12 additional boys and bring the Plantation's capacity to 39 boys. It will have an apartment for house parents, a music room, clothing supply, guest room, recreation room, study room, restrooms, laundry room and small infirmary.

The interior layout will be the last cottage to be built and the greatest change being made is in the roof design.

Mr. Robert W. Moore, Executive Director, reported on recent developments in the program. Included in the report was the announcement of plans to add an equipment storage building to protect the farm equipment. This structure will be 30 feet by 40 feet and it is anticipated that much of the material needed will be donated by local businessmen and industries.

It was also reported that about 25 acres of woodland have been bulldozed, cleared and planted into a hay field. An additional 12 acres are being cleared for planting next spring. This will provide adequate hay for support a growing herd of Black Angus cattle, the ponies and sheep on the Plantation. It was pointed out that the cattle herd has become a valuable asset to the program.

Bloodmobile Visit Here Tuesday

The Red Cross Bloodmobile made its regular visit to Appomattox on Tuesday from noon until 6 p.m., 95% of the quota of 148 pints had to be donated in order to keep Appomattox County off probation.

An 18 year old donor, Billy Harvey, shown above above with a Red Cross nurse, was one of the many donors. Billy urges all 18 year-olds to start donating blood if they have not already done so.

A total of 155 pints of blood was donated on Tuesday to put Appomattox County over its quota. When something is really needed the people of our County really dig in and get the job done.

Thanks to Chairman "Mac"

When the talk of the first Annual Appomattox Railroad Festival began in town one of the most important factors was to find a person qualified and willing to serve as Chairman of the event. Such a person was found in Donald MacPherson, an Extension Agent in our county. "Mac", shown above with his wife, Barbara, who very capably served as Festival Secretary - Treasurer, and their small son, Scotty, who looks as if he could use a nap, is to be congratulated on the excellent job he did in making plans, finding capable Chairmen for various committees and in general doing a great deal of work toward making this event such a tremendous success.

Mrs. Maude Walker Wooldridge.

Born in Appomattox, he was a son of Tarwell Wooldridge and Ann F. Wooldridge. He was a member of First United Methodist Church.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by three grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

The family will be at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p. m. today.

Appomattox County Recognized For Conservation Work ed as the outstanding conservation farmer from Amherst County.

Jimmy Tweedy of Concord was recognized as the outstanding conservation farmer in Campbell County. His farm is most attractive and well managed. Each acre is used to its best potential.

District Chairman, Ralph Tucker, presented both Osinga and Tweedy with a framed certificate of accomplishment.

E. Carter Martin of Appomattox County was selected by the Awards Committee as the most outstanding conservation farmer in the three country conservation district. Farming is a trait of the Martin family. Carter's four brothers are all successful farmers.

The 250 acre Maple Hill farm, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Carter Martin, is a showplace of good management and conservation. Their operation is one of diversity to best utilize labor. The 45 cow beef herd produces feeder calves which are fed to slaughter weight. About 125 acres of excellent hay and pasture and 40 acres of grain are produced to support the beef herd. Carter produces about 2 acres of dark tobacco. His production per acre nearly doubles the county average.

Crops are planted in alternate contour strips to reduce erosion. Drainageways are kept in permenant sod. Erosion will not be tolerated. Following any storm damage to his fields, Carter promptly mulches the rills with straw to reduce further erosion.

Two farm ponds store water for livestock and wildlife. The Judging Committee also observed some improved woodland, a perennial wildlife planting, and a new livestock watering facility. Water from a spring flows by gravity through a pipeline into a trouch to provide a clean water supply. This will permit better grazing management.

The Martin's are active in church and civic affairs and Carter is serving as a Director of the Robert E. Lee Conservation District.

Chairman Ralph Tucker presented Carter Martin with a plaque and certificate. He will represent the Robert E. Lee District in the area conservation farmer contest.

Arthur T. Hart, Director of the Virginia Soil and Water Conservation Commission, spoke on the role of the lay conservationist with 55 professional and lay conservationist attending.

The Concord Young Homemakers served the banquet at Concord School.

Join Fidelity's 5% Christmas Club & have a good ole time!

Words can't capture the Spirit of Christmas. Because more than anything else, it's an affair of the heart. A time when the look of wonder and anticipation in a child's eyes speaks of an ageless season. And the miracle that Christmas itself really is.

Part of the joy is giving. From the heart. And with money to spend, the joy's even greater.

Fidelity's Christmas Club can provide the cash you'll need. You put in a few dollars each week, and we'll add 5% interest on your paid up club, computed on a 50 week scheduled basis. Then next year you'll have two things. Cash for Christmas.

And a good ole time.
